

What you need to know about us:

BF was established 30 years ago and has developed a 60-acre activity site together with a highly skilled team to deliver flexible programmes of inclusive, adventurous outdoor activities for children, young people and their families.

We run programmes with young people who have a wide range of physical, mental, learning and/or behavioural difficulties, and with those who have difficulties stemming from their experiences of poverty, neglect and other disadvantages. Our positive approach develops skills and confidence, to increase self-belief with the goal of achieving more positive participation in society.

We use a combination of youth work methodology, outdoor education theory and child development awareness to ensure that our approach is grounded in evidence-based practice. Members of the team bring specialist knowledge in these areas and our commitment to training and development enables us to keep up to date with innovations.

For more information on the difference we make please see our Social Impact Report on the website.

Our mission is to Inspire, challenge and motivate people, especially young people, to develop their life skills and to bring about positive change.

Job Description

| | |
|-----------------|---|
| Job Title: | Skills for Life Instructor / Youth Support Worker – Level 2 |
| Salary banding: | £16,380 - £17,380 (pay award pending Sept 2021) |
| Term: | Full time, Fixed Term contract 1 year (possibility to extend) |
| Hours: | 35 hours per week |
| Responsible to: | Education Programme Coordinators |

Role Outline:

The primary role of a BF Adventure Skills for Life Instructor is to support children and young people on a journey of change; to develop their personal and social skills through engagement in outdoor activities. This activity is delivered through one to one support or small group work. Skills for Life Instructors have a demonstrable passion for the outdoors and the opportunities for learning that this provides children and young people. This Level 2 role offers Instructors the opportunity to develop their own skill base and a commitment to this personal development is essential.

Level 2 Skills for Life Instructors work with children and young people to develop professional positive relationships. Instructors will be supported by Coordinators to establish links with referring agencies and parents/carers as appropriate, to identify achievable outcomes and to facilitate the creation and delivery of bespoke provision in line with the specific needs of the individual or group. Throughout the young person's provision, they are responsible for continuous evaluation, maintaining a multi-agency approach and enabling young people to recognise their own personal developments along their journey of change at BF Adventure.

Instructors are responsible for the monitoring, evaluation and recording of the individuals' progressions against these outcomes through the reporting tool. At the completion of provision, they support the Coordinator with transitioning the young person's progress onto their future settings.

Instructors are at the front line of recognising safeguarding concerns presented by the service users and must follow BF Adventure's Safeguarding Policy and Procedures.

Instructors are accountable to the Education Programme Coordinators and are required to engage in BF Adventure's supervision and appraisal process.

Effective participation in Skills for Life team meetings is essential to further enhance the provision that BF Adventure offers.

Key Tasks:

- To work in line with the BF Adventure Journey of Change; supporting children, young people, families and vulnerable adults to make positive changes in their lives
- To clearly identify the needs of allocated young people in liaison with the Programme Coordinators, referral agencies and the young people themselves
- To develop trusting positive relationships with the young person, supporting them to outline their personal journey of change, identifying their aims and achievable outcomes
- To plan, deliver and develop long term provision to support young people throughout their programme at BF Adventure in line with their identified needs within an individual or group setting
- To monitor, evaluate and record individuals' progression towards their planned outcomes through the reporting system and other feedback tools
- To provide Coordinators, marketing personnel and Senior Managers with examples of practice to inform grant reports, bid writing and publicity material
- To provide information to Coordinators to inform multi-agency meetings, or to attend if appropriate
- To safeguard young people's physical and mental wellbeing throughout their provision providing support and highlighting any concerns to the relevant person in line with BF Adventure's Safeguarding Policy.
- To liaise and communicate effectively with the wider delivery team.
- To use reflective practice as a means to improve professional practice, including within team debriefs, and to participate regularly in activities and training to maintain and develop personal competencies
- To participate in regular supervision sessions, yearly performance appraisals and team meetings and to demonstrate commitment to the continuous quality improvement of services.
- To work within BF Adventure's framework of Equal Opportunities and to understand and celebrate diversity.
- To be aware of and comply with Health and Safety procedures.
- To contribute to the effective and safe running of activities both on and off-site, including the dynamic risk assessment of situations, Area of Special Responsibilities (ASR) and incident reporting.
