

What you need to know about us:

BF was established 30 years ago and has developed a 60-acre activity site together with a highly skilled team to deliver flexible programmes of inclusive, adventurous outdoor activities for children, young people and their families.

We run programmes with young people who have a wide range of physical, mental, learning and/or behavioural difficulties, and with those who have difficulties stemming from their experiences of poverty, neglect and other disadvantages. Our positive approach develops skills and confidence, to increase self-belief with the goal of achieving more positive participation in society.

We use a combination of youth work methodology, outdoor education theory and child development awareness to ensure that our approach is grounded in evidence-based practice; we describe our facilitation style as Trauma Informed Youth Work in the Outdoors. Members of the team bring specialist knowledge in these areas and our commitment to training and development enables us to keep up to date with innovations.

For more information on the difference we make please see our Social Impact Report on the website.

Our mission is to Inspire, challenge and motivate people, especially young people, to develop their life skills and to bring about positive change.

Job Description

Job Title:	Skills for Life Youth Support Worker/Instructor – Level 2
Salary banding:	£18965 (pay award pending April 2024)
Term:	Full time, permanent contract (subject to probationary period)
Hours:	35 hours per week
Responsible to:	Skills for Life Coordinators

Role Outline:

The primary role of a BF Adventure Skills for Life Youth Support Worker/Instructor is to support children and young people on a journey of change; to develop their personal and social skills through engagement in outdoor activities, facilitated through our Trauma Informed Youth Work approach. This activity is delivered through one to one support or small group work. Skills for Life Instructors have a demonstrable passion for the outdoors and the opportunities for learning that this provides children and young people. This Level 2 role is a trainee role that offers Instructors the opportunity to develop their own skill base and a commitment to this personal development is essential. L2 Instructors will agree with their line manager a set of objectives that should enable them to move to a L3 position within the year.

Level 2 Skills for Life Youth Support Worker/Instructors work with children and young people to develop professional positive relationships. Instructors will be supported by Coordinators to establish links with referring agencies and parents/carers as appropriate, to identify achievable outcomes and to facilitate the creation and delivery of bespoke provision in line with the specific needs of the individual or group. Throughout the young person's provision, they are responsible for continuous evaluation, maintaining a multi-agency approach and enabling young people to recognise their own personal developments along their journey of change at BF Adventure.

Youth Support Workers/Instructors are responsible for the monitoring, evaluation and recording of the individuals' progressions against these outcomes through the reporting tool. At the completion of provision, they support the Coordinator with transitioning the young person's progress onto their future settings.

Youth Support Workers/Instructors are at the front line of recognising safeguarding concerns presented by the service users and must follow BF Adventure's Safeguarding Policy and Procedures.

Youth Support Workers/Instructors are accountable to the Skills for Life Coordinators and are required to engage in BF Adventure's supervision and appraisal process.

Effective participation in Skills for Life team meetings is essential to further enhance the provision that BF Adventure offers.
